A FORMATION PROGRAM THAT

promotes

living out consecration with intelligence and heart, while fostering experiences of communion

considers

limits and challenges encountered in seeking fruitful interaction between canon law and life

HOW?

This Dicastery's pastoral dimension is expressed in a course structured in two complementary areas

INTERDISCIPLINARY AREA

Explores consecrated life through theology, liturgy, history, and Magisterium

Addresses fundamental themes such as biblical hermeneutics, identity, the meaningfulness of consecrated life, and its ecclesial nature

Provides tools that can effectively guide and accompany consecrated life today in different sociocultural contexts

CANONICAL NORMS AND PRACTICE AREA

Explores the specificity of different forms of consecrated life by highlighting their common foundation

Addresses current urgencies in discernment, formation, economic management, mission, fraternal life

Provides an integral view of the law which, starting from the Dicastery's praxis, assists those who carry out specific services and stimulates reflection on current norms
